

I support CSAE's petition for an extension for emergency clarification with the FCC to allow more time for the agency to consider the impact of regulations on the business world, including associations. Faxing is vital to information provided to our member firms and individuals within our member firms. I oppose the new FCC "unsolicited fax rule" which will be in effect on August 25, 2003.